

Developing the Self
Developing the World

CARING FOR HEALTH AT HOME

An experiential workshop offering mantles of care in daily life that support family health.

Offered by visiting health practitioners who are supporting child observations and professional development at Mount Barker Waldorf School.

9:15am Thursday September 15th for 9:30am start (until 11am)

Mount Barker Waldorf School (in the Beehive)

This workshop is funded by a community engagement grant received by Mount Barker Waldorf School.

Places are limited

Young children may accompany parents during this workshop.

Contact the School to Book a place

Email the Office Now →

To enquire email: info@developingtheself.org

Lyn Clifton is a community health social worker who combines her anthroposophic wholistic healthcare training to re-enliven care practices in daily life at home and school. Lyn studied the Foundations of Anthroposophic Nursing with Taruna College New Zealand's Developing the Self Developing the World is a social initiative based on the work of Rudolf Steiner that offers spirit-led health and education. courses.

www.developingtheself.org